

Original Sentence	Participant Answer
1. The passengers on the bus looked on in confusion as they forded through the River Clyde.	4
2. The small island town held a celebration for its 50th annual ?	Independence day
3. The burglars surprised the watchman of the bank who was not expecting such audacity.	2
4. The pay rise surprised the speaker of the unionists who ?	Had a defeatist attitude to the pay negotiations
5. The grandmaster reluctantly went to the chessboard where he faced a supercomputer.	5
6. The lieutenant ordered that the floors of the battalion's barracks were ...	Swept for a third time
7. The businesswoman married the mayor of the city who was nominated for an OBE.	5
8. The negotiator met the deputies of the chairman who ?	Listened intently
9. The ranger of the forest near the city borders forbid ...	Animal traps
10. The lollipop man watched the traffic as a trail of ducks waddled across the road.	5

Original Sentence	Participant Answer
11. The guest envied the hostess of the party which was the biggest event in town.	3
12. The principal congratulated the supervisor of the students who ?	Got away with plagiarism due to their family connections (lol)
13. The archaeologist discovered an unusual fossil which turned out to be a discarded film prop.	4
14. The family found it difficult to adjust to living in France since none of them spoke French.	3
15. The angry mob blamed the healer of the village which was afflicted by the plague.	4
16. The defence lawyer blamed the victims of the conman who ?	She defended
17. To help the penguins digest, zookeepers urged patrons not to deep fry fish.	5
18. The labourer loaded planks of timber onto the van before he drove off to the building site.	5
19. The toddler kissed the fluffy toy of her playmate which was made of 100% polyester.	4
20. The diva kissed the puppies at the dog shelter that ?	Sponsored his latest PR stunt

Original Sentence	Participant Answer
21. The wizard invited acclaimed adventures to his castle to steal their vast riches.	2
22. The expert claimed the earthquake was due to a seismic slip from drilling on an oil rig.	3
23. The detective recorded the testimony of the witness who was very cooperative.	5
24. The secretary filed the letters from the department that ?	Sent the FOI fequest
25. The pianist noted that the strings of the soloist's violin were ...	In decay, much like the players popularity
26. The preschoolers rounded up as many snails as they could find for another busy day.	4
27. The constant rain annoyed the celebrities in the camp which was infested with cockroaches.	5
28. The reviews frustrated the co-authors of the researcher who ?	Had a springboard funding grant riding on a quick publication promise
29. The musicians deflected criticisms of their new CD, stating ?	Art that was too complex for some outwith "the industry"
30. The skateboarders had to bandage up their knees after they ?	Miss timed the half pipe grind

Original Sentence	Participant Answer
31. The sea captivated many artists of the 19th century which was the age of impressionism.	5
32. The theory inspired research on quantum particles that ?	School kids enjoyed at their STEM trip.
33. The hairdresser was chatting to her colleague in order to honour an old tradition of the trade.	1
34. Before selling his mansion with all its antique interior, the earl ...	Heard of death of his illegitimate son, Harold.
35. The data astounded the advocate of the standard model who had expected the exact opposite.	5
36. The shouting spooked the neighbour of the newlyweds who ?	Had arrived from London overnight.
37. The picnic was going so well until swans from the pond feasted on all the bread.	5
38. Looking back over 3 months of receiving psychiatric help, he felt like ?	His therapist needed more help than he did.
39. The passenger insulted the attendant on the flight which operated a no alcohol policy.	5
40. The hooligan insulted the supporters of the foreign team that ?	Won La Ligue 4 out of the last 5 seasons.

Original Sentence	Participant Answer
41. The church choir had to stop unexpectedly after the organist ?.	Quit.
42. Since the mountain was incredibly dangerous, the rock climbers ?	Took all the safety precautions seriously.
43. The priest cherished the book by the medieval bishop which was precious and unique.	5
44. The pop fan cherished the albums of the band that ?	Had seen them through their awkward teenage years.
45. The rainstorm raged on through the country, causing back-to-back traffic for miles.	5
46. The prime minister held a press conference and shortly afterwards ...	Continue to pedal his lies despite public opinion being at all time low
47. The insurer snubbed the tenant of the flat which reportedly had a water leak.	5
48. The baroness snubbed the housemaids of the millionaire who ?	Where named in his will.
49. The old lady brought her troublesome grandchildren some ?	Pie.
50. The cook decided that wasabi was a poor choice because ?	Of the diners dislike of spicy food

Original Sentence	Participant Answer
51. The cult members celebrated the death of their guru who had promised them an eternal afterlife.	5
52. The campaigners celebrated the outcome of the elections that ?	Saved 1000 jobs.
53. Ever since the DEA cracked down on illicit drugs, dealers began investing in cryptocurrency.	4
54. The famous entertainer was given a bunch of flowers after ...	Their performance
55. The commentary angered the organizer of the rally which took place in London last week.	5
56. The parade delighted the devotees of the queen who ?	Waved as she passed in her car.
57. They waded through dusty cobwebs in the attic until they found boxes full of old board games.	5
58. The accomplice of the recently convicted fraudster alleged they were only in it for the money.	1
59. Mr Farage welcomed the proposal by the US president which involved privatisation of the NHS.	2
60. The receptionist welcomed the secretary of the diplomats who ?	Arrived late.

Original Sentence	Participant Answer
61. The company was worried about their eco-friendly image, so they planted some trees.	5
62. The robber decided to leave empty-handed after he found ?	The baby.
63. The coach yelled at the groundsman of the football pitch which was very untidy.	5
64. The boss yelled at the trainees of the foreman who ?	Couldn't care less
65. Because of unexpectedly harsh weather conditions in spring, ?	An indian summer was predicted.
66. When I was younger my mother used to read me bedtime stories about ?	far away lands.
67. The foody criticized the dish by the head chef which was very spicy.	1
68. The scientist criticised the methods of the study that ?	Had poor reliability quality.
69. The van driver nearly crashed into the pedestrians because he was staring at his phone.	5
70. The doctor helped heal the horse's broken leg until she made a miraculous recovery.	5

Original Sentence	Participant Answer
71. The conductor disliked the baritone singer of the choir who was a bit full of himself.	5
72. The head of state praised the work of the charities that ?	Helped homeless families in several other states.
73. The politician blustered that future rioters will be facing the full force of the law.	4
74. The teenagers barricaded the main entrance of the school so that no one could get in.	4
75. The pirate buried the treasure chest of the captain who was notorious for his cruelty.	4
76. The soldier guarded the gates to the palace that ?	Housed the jewels.
77. According to the monk in plaster cast, the steps down the temple were a bit steep.	5
78. The priest looked after the asylum seekers because ...	He knew what fate awaited.
79. The freshman looked up the notes from the tutor which were relevant for the exam.	3
80. The applicant read through the small print in the forms that ?	They were required to sign.

Original Sentence	Participant Answer
81. Because of last night's TV documentary, the young woman vowed never to eat meat again.	4
82. Shortly before the fully occupied passenger plane had landed, ...	Quarantine was declared with immediate effect.
83. The TV channel showed a report on the duke who had some dubious friends in the past.	5
84. The screen showed error messages of the programme that ?	Aired the previous week
85. The barman slid a whiskey and a beer over to the cowboy from the adverts.	2
86. Because of a considerable delay of the 7.30am train, ...	Lucy got soaked walking to the office.
87. The keynote enlightened the participants at the meeting who did not expect such eloquence.	3
88. The puppet show uplifted the children at the ward that ?	To spend the Christmas period under NHS care
89. The fishermen hated the large swarms of jellyfish because they would clog their nets.	5
90. The interviewer listened patiently before noticing that he did not pay attention.	2

Original Sentence	Participant Answer
91. The young girl fed the dog of the pensioner that always barked when it saw her.	5
92. The admiral feared an attack on the support ships that ?	Crossed the altantic
93. Thanks to stricter speed checks on national motorways ...	The government raised 3 million that year.
94. All her friends chipped in for her birthday to surprise her with ?	Flowers
95. The kids chased the goose of the farmer which was chattering frantically.	5
96. The cops chased the getaway car of the mobsters that ?	Allegedly robbed a local bank
97. The invited speaker switched on the microphone before ...	Silence fell in the room
98. Given the reports about quicksand, the adventurer decided the best would be to wait.	1
99. The cardinal hired the painter of the famous fresco who was also an exquisite sculptor.	5
100. The promoter hired the staffers of the catering firm that ?	Had been recommended to him.

Original Sentence	Participant Answer
101. The inspector learnt that the handbag of the diplomat's wife had been ...	Stolen
102. After washing the salad with its firm green leaves, the scullion ...	Called the kitchen porter
103. The playboy beguiled the main actress of the movie which had some explicit scenes in it.	5
104. The anthropologist approached the chief of the natives who ?	Did not welcome their intrusion
105. The postman was scared off by a large dog, so next time ?	Lobbed the post in from behind the gate (lol)
106. The friendly mailman delivered a small parcel to ...	The small eager child
107. The tabloid questioned the landlord of the estate who did not care about fire regulations.	5
108. The headmaster questioned the classmate of the bullies who ?	Claimed to not know what was going on
109. The management of the successful supermarket chain planned ...	An expansion
110. The soldiers charged into the jungle in the search of hidden Aztec artefacts.	5

Original Sentence	Participant Answer
111. The rich uncle missed the graduation of his niece who got a first-class degree.	5
112. The shooter missed two targets at the firing range that ?	Disqualified her from the competition
113. The woman complained that the bicycles of the neighbour?s kids were leaving black marks.	5
114. The cat impressed all at the talent show by demonstrating an understanding of calculus.	5
115. The sleazy agent flattered the mistress of the house who wasn't as gullible as he expected.	5
116. The internet troll harassed the candidate of the Lib Dems who ?	Avoided eye contact
117. The overeager Crown Prosecutor alleged that the defendant ...	Was guilty and he could prove it beyond reasonable doubt.
118. The officer recalled that sails of the buccaneer?s ship were ...	Blue.
119. The vegan decried the new diet of her friend who used to eat almost anything.	5
120. The arbiter encouraged a dialogue between the opponents that ?	Day.

Original Sentence	Participant Answer
121. The film was torn apart by cineastes, but most people thought it was too pretentious.	5
122. Due to new safety regulations, the construction of the new bridge ?	Was halted.
123. The poet recited a sonnet about a princess which did not rhyme at all.	2
124. The psychologist wrote an article on mental disorders that ?	Took a behaviourist stance decrying such old fashioned labelled terminology. What is order anyway?
125. There were rumours that the contract of the team's manager had not been ...	Renewed
126. The patient had to wait for quite some time before being told to come back another time.	2
127. The plumber fixed the kitchen sink of the old lady who was living on her own.	4
128. The mechanic fixed the brakes of the F1 car that ?	Had lost 2 secs in the qualifiers.
Time taken	39 mins