

Original Sentence	Participant Answer
1. The passengers on the bus looked on in confusion as they forded through the River Clyde.	5
2. The small island town held a celebration for its 50th annual ?	Carnival
3. The burglars fooled the watchman of the bank which was located near the town hall.	5
4. The pay rise surprised the speaker of the unionists who ?	Spoke at length regarding this matter
5. The grandmaster reluctantly went to the chessboard where he faced a supercomputer.	5
6. The lieutenant ordered that the floors of the battalion's barracks were ...	Repared
7. The businesswoman met the mayor of the city which was famous for its museums.	5
8. The negotiator met the deputies of the chairman who ?	Informed him of the task at hand
9. The ranger of the forest near the city borders forbid ...	Barbecues
10. The lollipop man watched the traffic as a trail of ducks waddled across the road.	5

Original Sentence	Participant Answer
11. The guest envied the hostess of the party who was celebrating her latest promotion.	5
12. The principal congratulated the supervisor of the students who ?	Are graduating
13. The archaeologist discovered an unusual fossil which turned out to be a discarded film prop.	5
14. The family found it difficult to adjust to living in France since none of them spoke French.	5
15. The angry mob blamed the healer of the village who was rumoured to practice witchcraft.	5
16. The defence lawyer blamed the victims of the conman who ?	Were too gullible
17. To help the penguins digest, zookeepers urged patrons not to deep fry fish.	5
18. The labourer loaded planks of timber onto the van before he drove off to the building site.	5
19. The toddler nuzzled the fluffy toy of her playmate who was crying for his mum.	5
20. The diva kissed the puppies at the dog shelter that ?	Craved affection

Original Sentence	Participant Answer
21. The wizard invited acclaimed adventures to his castle to steal their vast riches.	1
22. The expert claimed the earthquake was due to a seismic slip from drilling on an oil rig.	5
23. The detective recorded the testimony of the witness which was very detailed.	5
24. The secretary filed the letters from the department that ?	Sent them to her.
25. The pianist noted that the strings of the soloist's violin were ...	Out of tune
26. The preschoolers rounded up as many snails as they could find for another busy day.	5
27. The constant rain annoyed the celebrities in the camp who hadn't had a proper meal for days.	5
28. The reviews frustrated the co-authors of the researcher who ?	Slated the book.
29. The musicians deflected criticisms of their new CD, stating ?	It was badly produced
30. The skateboarders had to bandage up their knees after they ?	Had too many accidents the previous day..

Original Sentence	Participant Answer
31. The sea captivated many artists of the 19th century who called themselves impressionists.	5
32. The theory inspired research on quantum particles that ?	Had never been seen before.
33. The hairdresser was chatting to her colleague in order to honour an old tradition of the trade.	5
34. Before selling his mansion with all its antique interior, the earl ...	Had asked for a certain item to remain in his family.
35. The data spooked the advocate of the standard model which predicted the exact opposite.	5
36. The shouting spooked the neighbour of the newlyweds who ?	Wondered whether to call the police.
37. The picnic was going so well until swans from the pond feasted on all the bread.	5
38. Looking back over 3 months of receiving psychiatric help, he felt like ?	It had improved his outlook on life.
39. The passenger insulted the attendant on the flight who refused to serve him alcohol.	5
40. The hooligan insulted the supporters of the foreign team that ?	Abused him most of the game.

Original Sentence	Participant Answer
41. The church choir had to stop unexpectedly after the organist ?.	Collapsed.
42. Since the mountain was incredibly dangerous, the rock climbers ?	Chose a different route.
43. The priest worshipped the book by the medieval bishop who later had become a saint.	1
44. The pop fan cherished the albums of the band that ?	Are no longer together.
45. The rainstorm raged on through the country, causing back-to-back traffic for miles.	5
46. The prime minister held a press conference and shortly afterwards ...	Announced lockdown was over.
47. The insurer snubbed the tenant of the flat who complained about the water leak.	5
48. The baroness snubbed the housemaids of the millionaire who ?	Kept everything in order
49. The old lady brought her troublesome grandchildren some ?	Much needed discipline
50. The cook decided that wasabi was a poor choice because ?	It's an unusual dish

Original Sentence	Participant Answer
51. The cult members celebrated the death of their guru which spelled the dawn of a new age to them.	5
52. The campaigners celebrated the outcome of the elections that ?	Meant a new government was to be installed.
53. Ever since the DEA cracked down on illicit drugs, dealers began investing in cryptocurrency.	1
54. The famous entertainer was given a bunch of flowers after ...	The show
55. The commentary angered the organizer of the rally who was passionate about climate change.	5
56. The parade delighted the devotees of the queen who ?	Looked very elegant
57. They waded through dusty cobwebs in the attic until they found boxes full of old board games.	5
58. The accomplice of the recently convicted fraudster alleged they were only in it for the money.	5
59. Mr Farage exalted the proposal by the US president who was keen to exploit the NHS.	5
60. The receptionist welcomed the secretary of the diplomats who ?	Was arriving for a meeting.

Original Sentence	Participant Answer
61. The company was worried about their eco-friendly image, so they planted some trees.	5
62. The robber decided to leave empty-handed after he found ?	Very little value in the items
63. The coach yelled at the groundsman of the football pitch who was seemingly drunk.	5
64. The boss yelled at the trainees of the foreman who ?	Were clueless
65. Because of unexpectedly harsh weather conditions in spring, ?	Farmers are struggling financially
66. When I was younger my mother used to read me bedtime stories about ?	Dinosaurs
67. The foody relished the dish by the head chef who was newly appointed.	5
68. The scientist criticised the methods of the study that ?	Were unfair statistically
69. The van driver nearly crashed into the pedestrians because he was staring at his phone.	5
70. The doctor helped heal the horse's broken leg until she made a miraculous recovery.	5

Original Sentence	Participant Answer
71. The conductor praised the baritone singer of the choir which had about 30 members.	3
72. The head of state praised the work of the charities that ?	Provided shelter for the homeless.
73. The politician blustered that future rioters will be facing the full force of the law.	2
74. The teenagers barricaded the main entrance of the school so that no one could get in.	5
75. The pirate buried the treasure chest of the captain which was full of stolen gems.	5
76. The soldier guarded the gates to the palace that ?	The queen stayed at
77. According to the monk in plaster cast, the steps down the temple were a bit steep.	3
78. The priest looked after the asylum seekers because ...	Nobody else was willing to.
79. The freshman read through the notes from the tutor who had given the stats course.	5
80. The applicant read through the small print in the forms that ?	Contradicts the initial information

Original Sentence	Participant Answer
81. Because of last night's TV documentary, the young woman vowed never to eat meat again.	5
82. Shortly before the fully occupied passenger plane had landed, ...	Cabin crew checked everyone had their seatbelts fastened
83. The TV channel showed a report on the duke which contained highly charged footage.	5
84. The screen showed error messages of the programme that ?	Had been downloaded
85. The barman slid a whiskey and a beer over to the cowboy from the adverts.	5
86. Because of a considerable delay of the 7.30am train, ...	I was late for work..
87. The keynote uplifted the participants at the meeting which was rather boring until then.	5
88. The puppet show uplifted the children at the ward that ?	Were unwell
89. The fishermen hated the large swarms of jellyfish because they would clog their nets.	5
90. The interviewer listened patiently before noticing that he did not pay attention.	1

Original Sentence	Participant Answer
91. The young girl feared the dog of the pensioner who hoarded old newspapers in his flat.	5
92. The admiral feared an attack on the support ships that ?	Part of his fleet
93. Thanks to stricter speed checks on national motorways ...	Accidents had fallen
94. All her friends chipped in for her birthday to surprise her with ?	A spa day
95. The kids mocked the goose of the farmer who was milking the cows.	1
96. The cops chased the getaway car of the mobsters that ?	Had been involved in criminality
97. The invited speaker switched on the microphone before ...	Beginning his speech.
98. Given the reports about quicksand, the adventurer decided the best would be to wait.	1
99. The cardinal idolized the painter of the famous fresco which graced the ceiling of the chapel.	5
100. The promoter hired the staffers of the catering firm that ?	Were excellent last year.

Original Sentence	Participant Answer
101. The inspector learnt that the handbag of the diplomat's wife had been ...	Stolen
102. After washing the salad with its firm green leaves, the scullion ...	Ate it
103. The playboy beguiled the main actress of the movie who felt very uncomfortable about it.	5
104. The anthropologist approached the chief of the natives who ?	Was asleep
105. The postman was scared off by a large dog, so next time ?	He didnt deliver their mail
106. The friendly mailman delivered a small parcel to ...	The address on the parcel
107. The tabloid vilified the landlord of the estate which still had combustible cladding.	5
108. The headmaster questioned the classmate of the bullies who ?	Are unmanageable
109. The management of the successful supermarket chain planned ...	A flash sale of certain items
110. The soldiers charged into the jungle in the search of hidden Aztec artefacts.	5

Original Sentence	Participant Answer
111. The rich uncle missed the graduation of his niece which was held on campus.	5
112. The shooter missed two targets at the firing range that ?	Were easier to hit than miss.
113. The woman complained that the bicycles of the neighbour?s kids were leaving black marks.	5
114. The cat impressed all at the talent show by demonstrating an understanding of calculus.	1
115. The sleazy agent harassed the mistress of the house which was apparently up for sale.	5
116. The internet troll harassed the candidate of the Lib Dems who ?	Had radical opinion
117. The overeager Crown Prosecutor alleged that the defendant ...	Was to get a significant sentence
118. The officer recalled that sails of the buccaneer?s ship were ...	Torn
119. The vegan decried the new diet of her friend which mainly consisted of crisps.	5
120. The arbiter encouraged a dialogue between the opponents that ?	Had stopped communicating

Original Sentence	Participant Answer
121. The film was torn apart by cineastes, but most people thought it was too pretentious.	3
122. Due to new safety regulations, the construction of the new bridge ?	Was under review
123. The poet wrote a sonnet about a princess who fell in love with a peasant.	5
124. The psychologist wrote an article on mental disorders that ?	Affected women
125. There were rumours that the contract of the team's manager had not been ...	Lawful
126. The patient had to wait for quite some time before being told to come back another time.	5
127. The plumber fixed the kitchen sink of the old lady which had taken ages to drain.	5
128. The mechanic fixed the brakes of the F1 car that ?	Had failed
Time taken	59 mins