

Original Sentence	Participant Answer
1. The woman complained that the bicycles of the neighbour's kids were leaving black marks.	3
2. The interviewer listened patiently before noticing that he did not pay attention.	3
3. The passenger forgave the attendant on the flight who refused to serve him alcohol.	5
4. The hooligan insulted the supporters of the foreign team that ?	visiting the city
5. The accomplice of the recently convicted fraudster alleged they were only in it for the money.	5
6. The management of the successful supermarket chain planned ...	their business well
7. The foody criticized the dish by the head chef who was newly appointed.	5
8. The scientist criticised the methods of the study that ?	came back inconclusive
9. The robber decided to leave empty-handed after he found ?	the home owner was still at home
10. Because of a considerable delay of the 7.30am train, ...	the next train was over crowded

Original Sentence	Participant Answer
11. The commentary delighted the organizer of the rally who was passionate about climate change.	4
12. The parade delighted the devotees of the queen who ?	had camped out all night to see the parade
13. The passengers on the bus looked on in confusion as they forded through the River Clyde.	2
14. The officer recalled that sails of the buccaneer's ship were ...	as long as they were tall
15. The burglars surprised the watchman of the bank which was located near the town hall.	5
16. The pay rise surprised the speaker of the unionists who ?	had been fighting for the rise for years
17. The lollipop man watched the traffic as a trail of ducks waddled across the road.	5
18. The politician blustered that future rioters will be facing the full force of the law.	4
19. The coach ridiculed the groundsman of the football pitch who was seemingly drunk.	4
20. The boss yelled at the trainees of the foreman who ?	had not shown them the correct process

Original Sentence	Participant Answer
21. The wizard invited acclaimed adventures to his castle to steal their vast riches.	1
22. Because of last night's TV documentary, the young woman vowed never to eat meat again.	5
23. The pirate guarded the treasure chest of the captain which was full of stolen gems.	3
24. The soldier guarded the gates to the palace that ?	the Queen resided in
25. To help the penguins digest, zookeepers urged patrons not to deep fry fish.	2
26. The small island town held a celebration for its 50th annual ?	Highland games
27. The plumber cleared the kitchen sink of the old lady which had taken ages to drain.	3
28. The mechanic fixed the brakes of the F1 car that ?	had broken on the track
29. The pianist noted that the strings of the soloist's violin were ...	needing replaced
30. The picnic was going so well until swans from the pond feasted on all the bread.	4

Original Sentence	Participant Answer
31. The rich uncle visited the graduation of his niece which was held on campus.	4
32. The shooter missed two targets at the firing range that ?	he had hit previously
33. When I was younger my mother used to read me bedtime stories about ?	pirate
34. The soldiers charged into the jungle in the search of hidden Aztec artefacts.	3
35. The businesswoman married the mayor of the city which was famous for its museums.	4
36. The negotiator met the deputies of the chairman who ?	was being held hostage
37. Before selling his mansion with all its antique interior, the earl ...	had one last party
38. The company was worried about their eco-friendly image, so they planted some trees.	4
39. The constant rain frustrated the celebrities in the camp who hadn't had a proper meal for days.	2
40. The reviews frustrated the co-authors of the researcher who ?	had worked their hardest to complete the book

Original Sentence	Participant Answer
41. The archaeologist discovered an unusual fossil which turned out to be a discarded film prop.	1
42. The grandmaster reluctantly went to the chessboard where he faced a supercomputer.	5
43. The young girl fed the dog of the pensioner who hoarded old newspapers in his flat.	5
44. The admiral feared an attack on the support ships that ?	protected the main fleet
45. The prime minister held a press conference and shortly afterwards ...	released a statement
46. The fishermen hated the large swarms of jellyfish because they would clog their nets.	5
47. The toddler kissed the fluffy toy of her playmate who was crying for his mum.	3
48. The diva kissed the puppies at the dog shelter that ?	were barking for her attention
49. The film was torn apart by cineastes, but most people thought it was too pretentious.	3
50. The cook decided that wasabi was a poor choice because ?	it dominated the other flavours

Original Sentence	Participant Answer
51. The angry mob chastened the healer of the village who was rumoured to practice witchcraft.	2
52. The defence lawyer blamed the victims of the conman who ?	stole their money
53. Looking back over 3 months of receiving psychiatric help, he felt like ?	it had been no help at all
54. The friendly mailman delivered a small parcel to ...	my door
55. The guest congratulated the hostess of the party who was celebrating her latest promotion.	5
56. The principal congratulated the supervisor of the students who ?	had won an award
57. The inspector learnt that the handbag of the diplomat's wife had been ...	taken
58. According to the monk in plaster cast, the steps down the temple were a bit steep.	5
59. The sleazy agent flattered the mistress of the house which was apparently up for sale.	4
60. The internet troll harassed the candidate of the Lib Dems who ?	had made a controversial comment online

Original Sentence	Participant Answer
61. Thanks to stricter speed checks on national motorways ...	there have been fewer crashes
62. The teenagers barricaded the main entrance of the school so that no one could get in.	5
63. The conductor disliked the baritone singer of the choir which had about 30 members.	4
64. The head of state praised the work of the charities that ?	were helping those less off
65. Given the reports about quicksand, the adventurer decided the best would be to wait.	1
66. The doctor helped heal the horse's broken leg until she made a miraculous recovery.	2
67. The sea inspired many artists of the 19th century who called themselves impressionists.	5
68. The theory inspired research on quantum particles that ?	revolutionised the way people understood it
69. The labourer loaded planks of timber onto the van before he drove off to the building site.	5
70. The skateboarders had to bandage up their knees after they ?	fell off their boards onto their knees

Original Sentence	Participant Answer
71. The vegan encouraged the new diet of her friend which mainly consisted of crisps.	4
72. The arbiter encouraged a dialogue between the opponents that ?	were competing
73. The postman was scared off by a large dog, so next time ?	threw the post into the garden
74. The famous entertainer was given a bunch of flowers after ...	their performance
75. The poet recited a sonnet about a princess who fell in love with a peasant.	5
76. The psychologist wrote an article on mental disorders that ?	made everyone stop and think
77. The patient had to wait for quite some time before being told to come back another time.	4
78. All her friends chipped in for her birthday to surprise her with ?	a cake and presents
79. Mr Farage welcomed the proposal by the US president who was keen to exploit the NHS.	5
80. The receptionist welcomed the secretary of the diplomats who ?	were visiting for a meeting

Original Sentence	Participant Answer
81. The priest looked after the asylum seekers because ...	it was gods will
82. The expert claimed the earthquake was due to a seismic slip from drilling on an oil rig.	5
83. The cult members mourned the death of their guru which spelled the dawn of a new age to them.	3
84. The campaigners celebrated the outcome of the elections that ?	saw them win
85. Due to new safety regulations, the construction of the new bridge ?	was delayed
86. The cat impressed all at the talent show by demonstrating an understanding of calculus.	1
87. The data astounded the advocate of the standard model which predicted the exact opposite.	4
88. The shouting spooked the neighbour of the newlyweds who ?	were fighting
89. Shortly before the fully occupied passenger plane had landed, ...	everyone put their seat belts on
90. The family found it difficult to adjust to living in France since none of them spoke French.	5

Original Sentence	Participant Answer
91. The TV channel announced a report on the duke which contained highly charged footage.	3
92. The screen showed error messages of the programme that ?	I was trying to use
93. Because of unexpectedly harsh weather conditions in spring, ?	the plants in the garden didn't grow when the should've
94. Since the mountain was incredibly dangerous, the rock climbers ?	decided to climb a different mountain
95. The keynote enlightened the participants at the meeting which was rather boring until then.	4
96. The puppet show uplifted the children at the ward that ?	they were staying on
97. The old lady brought her troublesome grandchildren some ?	discipline lessons
98. The ranger of the forest near the city borders forbid ...	anyone from camping
99. The tabloid questioned the landlord of the estate which still had combustible cladding.	3
100. The headmaster questioned the classmate of the bullies who ?	had attacked him

Original Sentence	Participant Answer
101. Ever since the DEA cracked down on illicit drugs, dealers began investing in cryptocurrency.	1
102. The rainstorm raged on through the country, causing back-to-back traffic for miles.	4
103. The priest cherished the book by the medieval bishop who later had become a saint.	4
104. The pop fan cherished the albums of the band that ?	they listened to as a child
105. After washing the salad with its firm green leaves, the scullion ...	prepared it for the chef to use
106. The lieutenant ordered that the floors of the battalion's barracks were ...	to be scrubbed by hand
107. The kids chased the goose of the farmer who was milking the cows.	3
108. The cops chased the getaway car of the mobsters that ?	attacked their rivals
109. The church choir had to stop unexpectedly after the organist ?.	collapsed
110. The preschoolers rounded up as many snails as they could find for another busy day.	2

Original Sentence	Participant Answer
111. The detective filed the testimony of the witness which was very detailed.	4
112. The secretary filed the letters from the department that ?	were handed to her
113. The van driver nearly crashed into the pedestrians because he was staring at his phone.	5
114. The hairdresser was chatting to her colleague in order to honour an old tradition of the trade.	1
115. The cardinal hired the painter of the famous fresco which graced the ceiling of the chapel.	3
116. The promoter hired the staffers of the catering firm that ?	was recommended to him
117. They waded through dusty cobwebs in the attic until they found boxes full of old board games.	1
118. The overeager Crown Prosecutor alleged that the defendant ...	was innocent and should be let go
119. The insurer appeased the tenant of the flat who complained about the water leak.	3
120. The baroness snubbed the housemaids of the millionaire who ?	she married

Original Sentence	Participant Answer
121. The barman slid a whiskey and a beer over to the cowboy from the adverts.	3
122. The musicians deflected criticisms of their new CD, stating ?	nothing more than nonsense
123. The freshman looked up the notes from the tutor who had given the stats course.	4
124. The applicant read through the small print in the forms that ?	came with the job application
125. There were rumours that the contract of the team?s manager had not been ...	legal
126. The invited speaker switched on the microphone before ...	starting
127. The playboy approached the main actress of the movie who felt very uncomfortable about it.	3
128. The anthropologist approached the chief of the natives who ?	welcomed him in
Time taken	68 mins